Lectrotab Trim Tab Updates

Issue 27, December 24, 2008

Year End: We take this opportunity to thank all of our Lectrotab users for the privilege of serving your trim tab needs over the past 12 months, as well as during the years prior. The noticeable slowdown in the 2008 economy did diminish our sales for the year however, we have regained much of that loss with new customers, so we will end 2008 on a good note. Our work force remains unchanged, with no management or production skills lost, and with shipments continuing on our usual timely schedule.

Anticipating continued growth in 2009, we welcome Duane Carpenter, who will serve as our manufacturing manager, beginning January 5th. Duane has experience as a working manager, so we anticipate that his input will not only enhance our production, but will also provide one more individual to see that we continue to build the Lectrotab product correctly.

Again, thanks for your business, which we sincerely appreciate.
